

Welcome

Dear Friends,
Welcome to Rivermont! We are delighted to have you with us this morning for worship.

What do you think the child of God will do throughout eternity? Friends, when we get to the throne of God in the presence of that thrice Holy God – we’re going to praise Him! I don’t believe you can get in the presence of God without praising Him. Praise is the one thing that we can do now that we’re going to do in eternity.

This morning, I want us to examine Psalm 100 and consider the power of praise – “Braggin on Jesus and Beginning a Praise List.” Thank you again for choosing to worship with us today and may God bless you abundantly!

Love in Christ,

Pastor Justin Dove

Venezuela

Dear Pastor Dove and Church Family,
Many of you were involved in the effort to get food supplies flown into some of the jungle villages where the Yanomamö were experiencing an unusual lack of available food, and I want to let you all know that the situation is now pretty much back to normal as the gardens are again producing the usual crops. What had happened this year was the lack of rain during the dry season caused the garden plants to not produce or even to wither and die. This, combined with an unusual lack of what the jungle normally produces caused a sort of “perfect storm” for there to be very little recourse for some of the villages to have enough food.
The help we provided together was enough to make a significant difference for the Yanomamö in the region where we used to live. The believers there administered the supplies among five other villages that are nearby, and it was enough to help them get through the most difficult time until the beginning of the rainy season when the gardens began to produce once again. Thank you all for your prayers and the financial support to make this happen! It was a surprise, an encouragement, and a christian example to the Yanomamö that it affected.
I sent this video once before, but wanted to put it here again. Many Yanomamö have told me to make sure I passed on their thanks! So here’s a group of Yanomamö and the Venezuelan pilot, after unloading the airplane, saying thank you!

Thank you from us as well,
Bobby & Sandy

Be careful for nothing;
but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.
—Philippians 4:6
