Missionary of the Week

Brown
Family

Cambodia

Dear Pastor Dove and Church Family,

I met Vuthy last spring while distributing tracts in a nearby village. He was orphaned by the Khmer Rouge and was sent to work at the Memot Rubber Plantation after being raised in a state orphanage. He knows a bit of English and was happy for me to visit him regularly. Over the past year and a half, I or a colleague have been to see him almost every week, sharing the gospel and building a relationship with him. Over the past few months, he has been going back and forth over whether he wanted to believe in Christ. Finally, last week, he told me clearly that he has decided to follow Jesus! Please pray that Vuthy will follow through and be incorporated into the church group here.

We have just two busy months before we head back to the US for our furlough! Please pray for this crucial time as we are trying to prepare the church folks for our absence. Several members have expressed interest in helping with various aspects of the ministry while we are gone. Pray that they will commit and follow through with this interest. Another big prayer request is for our annual Christmas program, planned for Dec. 22. This typically is our biggest outreach service of the year, so please pray that the Lord would superintend over all the planning and preparations that must be made.

For His Name's Sake,

The Brown Family

Welcome

Dear Friends,
Welcome to Rivermont! We are delighted to have you join us this morning for worship.

Everyone needs encouragement sometimes. All of us can think of people that need encouragement right now. The truth of the matter is that this is an hour of great trial and testing for many people.

I have never in my life seen the Devil attack on so many fronts in family's' and people's lives and in our nation like he is at this very moment. And during their hour of crisis, God's children have to stop and remind themselves - that greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world.

This morning, we are going to take a look in Acts 23 and consider this subject - "Be of Good Cheer." Thank you again for choosing to worship with us today and may God bless you abundantly!

Love in Christ,
Pastor Justin Dove
1 Samuel 12:24

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.
—Philippians 4:6
