Dear Pastor Dove and Church Family,

Thank you for your prayers concerning a new location to begin holding church services. We have found a storefront just two blocks from our house, and so it is right in the middle of our target area. As I write this letter the realtor company is working on the contract, and I should be able to pick it up in the next couple of days.

Please pray that this process goes smoothly. I am required to have two cosigners for renting the property, thankfully our missionary partner, David, and another member of our church are willing to sign for me. I am very thankful for these men and their help, as their good reputations have helped to seal the deal. I have found that most of the realtors are not very willing to take the risk of renting to a foreigner. After signing the contract, we will get the keys and then get the utilities turned on. We will also begin painting, cleaning, purchasing chairs, other equipment, and printing up literature.

Let me list a few names of folks that we are praying for, and I hope that you will keep them in prayers: Rosemary and her family, her sister and her family, William and Monica, Ezekiel and Yamila and their children and Daniel, Veronica, Mariana and many other neighbors.

We are very happy that my parents, Paul and Barbara Grinstead, were able to come down and visit during the holidays. Dad is very excited about helping with the preparations for the new church. Thanksgiving is not an Argentine holiday, so any turkey is very small and expensive. This year, instead of getting a turkey, we put an Argentine twist on things and purchased a flame grilled pork leg and started a new tradition.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support.

Justin and April Grinstead and Family

Welcome

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Rivermont! We warmly welcome you to our Christmas celebration! May we all reflect on the incredible gift of love, joy, and hope that God gave us through the birth of His Son, Jesus Christ.

Let's take time to pause and rejoice in the true meaning of Christmas. It is a time to celebrate the light that shines in the darkness, bringing peace, joy, and goodwill to all men. I invite you to open your hearts and embrace the message of Christmas found in God's Word as we sing carols, share in fellowship, and hear the Good News of Christ's birth. May our time together fill you with renewed hope and remind you of the blessings that surround us all.

This morning, we are going to look in Luke 2 and consider this subject - "The Joy of Christmas." Thank you again for choosing to worship with us today and may everyone have a Merry Christmas!

Love in Christ,
Pastor Justin Dove
