Venezuela

Dear Friends, Prayer Partners, and Faithful Supporters,

We trust you had a good Christmas and New Year! We have a prayer request this morning. Would you pray for Venezuela? For the political situation where today is inauguration day, and two opposing parties are claiming victory. If you'd just take a minute to mention this situation in prayer, we'd appreciate it. God is more than able to affect these things, and He knows every detail and how it will all turn out.

The Yanomamö have become more active on the political scene as well. Pepe told me yesterday to ask you all to pray. He says that he and all his people voted this time. I guess they took ballots out to his village, but he says that after this process is through, they are going to make up a letter to give to the powers that be, letting them know that the Yanomamö voted and so they now want their missionaries to be allowed back into the villages. :-). Oh, that it were that simple! In a way it is that simple though, we just need to trust our Father God. That's pretty simple when you think about it.

Thanks again for your prayers. If there is prolonged turmoil in the days ahead, it could affect a trip that Sandy and I have planned for Venezuela. We'll update you on that in another letter.

God Bless,

Bobby & Sandy

Welcome

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Rivermont! We are delighted to have you with us.

In a world that often feels overwhelming, it is easy to become burdened by our worries, fears, and uncertainties. Yet, the Scriptures reminds us of a beautiful promise: we are not alone in our struggles. God invites us to surrender our anxieties and concerns to Him. He longs for us to lay down our burdens at His feet, trusting in His infinite love and wisdom. May we all find rest in His presence and assurance in His love.

This morning, we are going to take a look in I Peter chapter 5 as we consider this subject - "Settle You." Thank you again for choosing to worship with us today and may God bless you abundantly!

Love in Christ,

Pastor Justin Dove
1 Samuel 12:24

Be careful for nothing;
but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.
