Sauder
Family

Zambia,
Africa

Dear Friends, Prayer Partners, and Faithful Supporters,

We thank God for watching over us day by day. Please do continue to pray for Zambia. We are yet to receive adequate rainfall, and since last year was a drought, there is a dire need for rain or there will be a food security problem in the coming year. Also, as a result, the power situation in the country has yet to improve. We are now averaging between two and three hours of power every two days or so. We do thank God for a solar back up system at our home, but for many people who work, the power blackouts have devastated many livelihoods.

We thank God for the souls that have been saved recently. Several weeks ago, a young lady named Esther trusted Christ on a Sunday morning in Kanyama. God has been working also at the new church, Makeni Bible Baptist. The church is growing with souls being saved and with several families joining the congregation recently in membership.

Finally, the new deaf school building is ready for students this coming term in January. We praise the Lord for this! Also our oldest son Elijah will be returning to the States in April to complete his senior year of high school. I will accompany Elijah on the journey and will be there for a few weeks to help get Elijah acclimated. Remember our family in your prayers as we adjust to this new chapter in our family; may the work of God continue in the States as well as here in Zambia.

Lifting Up Jesus,
Justin Sauder

Welcome

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Rivermont! We are delighted to have you with us.

This morning, let us reflect on the profound words from I Corinthians 15:34 which reminds us, "Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame." There are certain things that God wants every person to know. These words are a call to action and challenges us to recognize the responsibility, urgency, and the importance of sharing the light of God's truth with others.

This morning, we are looking in I Corinthians chapter 15 as we consider this subject - "For Some Have Not the Knowledge of God." Thank you again for choosing to worship with us today and may God bless you abundantly!

Love in Christ,

Pastor Justin Dove
